- With his muted palette, conspicuous brushwork and idiosyncratic approach to history, Luc Tuymans (b.1958) has changed the course of contemporary art, influencing a whole generation of figurative painters
- Produced in close collaboration with the artist, Luc Tuymans: Is It Safe? presents more than 100 brand new paintings, most never before published
- Insightful texts by Tuymans and essays by Pablo Sigg and Gerrit Vermeiren expand upon and contextualize this significant new body of work
- Also included are the artist's source images and numerous installation photographs

Luc Tuymans has been featured in solo exhibitions at major museums around the world, including Tate Modern, the Wexner Center for the Arts and the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art. He lives in Antwerp. Pablo Sigg is an artist and writer based in Mexico City. Gerrit Vermeiren is an artist, art historian and writer based in Antwerp who has written extensively on Luc Tuymans.
