- A pocket guide to world art from 8,000 BC to the present day
- An accessible, informative and fun compendium of world art that presents 500 masterworks from all cultures in chronological order, demonstrating what was being made all over the globe at the same time
- Only here can you find Leonardo's Ginevra de'Benici next to an ink painting from the Chinese Ming Dynasty, or Picasso's Demoiselles d'Avignon alongside a face mask from Gabon
- Each work occupies a unique place in the history of art and is a representative example of the art of its culture
- Concise descriptive texts set each work in context, explaining its place in the history of art
- A comprehensive index and a glossary make this book an invaluable reference tool and teaching resource
