- 100 simple, fresh and natural recipes from Rose Carrarini's (b.1951) ever popular Rose Bakery
- From breakfast staples such as crispy granola to afternoon treats, including sticky toffee pudding and carrot cake, as well as soups, risottos and other dishes perfect for a light lunch
- With specially commissioned photographs that show the dishes and the bakery at rue des Martyrs by Toby Glanville
- From her acclaimed 'epicerie fine' in London's Marylebone, Rose now has two restaurants in Paris, one in London and a fourth in Tokyo

Rose Carrarini opened Rose Bakery, a small bakery, shop and restaurant in Paris, with her husband Jean-Charles in 2002. After working in the fashion industry for ten years, the Carrarinis set up Villandry, their first food venture, in London in 1988. This 'epicerie fine' in Marylebone inspired many other food places in London, and formed the foundation for their work at Rose Bakery.
