

Hella Jongerius: Misfit

Louise Schouwenberg with contributions from Paola Antonelli and Alice Rawsthorn

255 x 185 mm
10 x 7 ¼ inches
308 pp
300 col illus.

Hardback

978 0 7148 5987 3

Collector's Edition

978 0 7148 5992 7

£ 29.95 UK
$ 49.95 US
€ 39.95 EUR
$ 55.00 CAN
$ 69.95 AUS

Published
January 2011

- The only up-to-date monograph on the work of Dutch product designer Hella Jongerius (b.1963)
- Written by three experts on product design; Louise Schouwenberg, Paola Antonelli and Alice Rawsthorn
- Includes over 300 photographs of Hella Jongerius' work, each selected by the designer
- Jongerius is head of her own firm, Jongeriuslab, and has worked with renowned Dutch group Droog Design. She is Director of the Design Atelier at the Design Academy in Eindhoven, the Netherlands. She is also winner of the 2004 Designer of the Year at the Salon du Meuble in Paris.
- A specially commissioned Collector's Edition volume with a unique Jongerius vase is also available (ISBN 978 0 7148 5992 7)

Paola Antonelli is the Senior Curator for Architecture and Design at the Museum of Modern Art in New York. She has contributed to a number of publications, including Supernatural: The Work of Ross Lovegrove. Alice Rawsthorn is a prolific design journalist, critic and broadcaster. A regular contributor to the International Herald Tribune, her books include Yves Saint Laurent: A Biography and Marc Newson. Louise Schouwenberg is a Dutch writer, curator and lecturer. She writes for several international magazines, has contributed to a large number of books on design and curated a number of art and design exhibitions. Schouwenberg has a long friendship and work association with Hella Jongerius which dates back to 1997.

